LEAGUE IS NOT INACTIVE

Agent Wilson Tells of the Work He and His Men Are Now Engaged In.

"It was told me today," said Agent Wilson, of the Municipal league, to a Tribune reporter yesterday, "that some Sunday paper had a scare-head article setting forth that the league was inactive these days. I am not wont to heed what the Sunday papers say, but in this case I will vary my rule to say that the article in question is decidedly misleading.

"The league may appear to be inactive, but that is because it is just at present engaged in a work that must necessarily be done quietly. Our efforts now are bent on suppressing one of the greatest evils threatening the morals of the city. I refer to the practice of young people, and some who are not young, of prowling at night about the fields adjacent to suburban residences. Their conduct has become so notoriously scandalous that the women and children of the neighborhood dare not venture from their homes after nightfall.

"Some of the sights seen by me and my men almost surpass belief. Persons who do not have occasion to look into this matter can not be made to realize by a word-of-mouth story the extent to which this thing is carried on. "We have made a number of arrests and have had several parties fined, but on account of the youth of most of the offenders we have kept the matter from the press. We feel now that quiet work must give way to open operations and hereafter, except in extreme cases, we propose to make an example of these offenders."

Mr. Wilson related a number of incidents in connection with this work, which tended to show that the concern of the league over this evil is not unwarranted. One thing which Mr. Wilson himself ran across one night was a young couple, a boy of twenty and a girl of fifteen, sleeping side by side in a field in Green Ridge at midnight. When the agent flashed his bull-eye lantern on them they were not disturbed. He had to use his club vigorously on the soles of their feet before they could be roused.

SMALL POX IN UPPER VALLEY

ONE CASE AT ARCHBALD, TWO AT SIMPSON.

John J. Dougher is the victim at Archbald and his Uncle, John Toolan, and a Neighbor, Mrs. Ann Doud, have been seized by the disease at Simpson—Vigorous Steps Have Been Taken by Authorities to Prevent the Spread of the Dreaded Disease.

Smallpox has broken out in the upper part of the county. There is one well-defined case in Archbald and two in Simpson. John J. Dougher, assistant superintendent of the Prudential Insurance company, is the Archbald victim. His uncle, John Toolan, and Mr. Toolan's next door neighbor, Mrs. Ann Doud, are the two afflicted at Simpson.

Dougher is 28 years of age and unmarried. He lives with his mother, two brothers and his sisters, at the foot of No. 5 hill, near the White Oak colliery. He was taken ill June 20, and was treated by Dr. K. C. Van Dusen for a fever. The fever was abated, and on Friday last Dougher was feeling well enough to visit the doctor's office. On the occasion of the doctor's last visit to Dougher's house he noticed what appeared to be a measles rash on Dougher's face. Thinking it was the result of the fever, he paid little heed to it. On Friday, when Dougher came to his office, the doctor saw that the rash was suppurated by what seemed to be pimples, but which, on closer observation, proved to be smallpox. Dougher was taken home, and his house quarantined. Dr. Smythe, of Jessup, who had a large experience in treating smallpox during an epidemic at Warrior Run, was called into consultation. He pronounced it a case of smallpox, and later Dr. V. Logan, local inspector of the state board of health, and Dr. W. E. Allen, health officer of this city, confirmed the diagnosis.

DR. LEE'S ORDER. Dr. Benjamin K. Lee, secretary of the state board of health, was notified and he directed that all who had come in contact with the patient should be immediately vaccinated and the quarantine on the house vigorously enforced.

Twelve persons who had been in the house with Dougher, most of them relatives, have been vaccinated. Twelve others, who visited him, including committees of fraternal societies who sat up with him at night, are to be vaccinated at once. It is also proposed to vaccinate everybody in the borough who has not been thus treated recently.

Dougher's brothers and sisters are with a relative in another house. His mother stays with him. She shows symptoms of the disease, but the doctors say it is in a light form.

Two officers guard the house, one in the day time and another at night. The Simpson cases are being treated by Dr. Malium, of that place. Dr. Niles, health officer of Carbondale, joins with him in pronouncing the cases small pox. The Simpson patients have been ill for about ten days. It was not until yesterday, however, that the cases were definitely diagnosed as smallpox.

IN ADJOINING HOUSES. The two patients live in adjoining company houses near the Erie company's Northwest breaker, and both registered in the same building. The authorities there are taking the usual precautions to prevent the spread of the disease.

Dr. J. S. Graves, health officer of Jermyn, yesterday issued the following notice: "Owing to the fact that smallpox is prevalent in Archbald, but two miles distant, and that it is a highly contagious and violent disease, it is of great importance that all unnecessary communication between the two places be at once suspended. Since vaccination is the only preventive, all residents of Jermyn who have not been vaccinated should be vaccinated as soon as possible, and those who have not been vaccinated within four years should be re-vaccinated."

STILL IT CONTINUES.

Yesterday Was Warmest Day of Summer—Maximum Temperature Was Reached in 97 Above

Once again is it the irksome task of The Tribune heat chronicler to announce that the warmest day of the year has spread its baleful influence over the city and departed, leaving in its wake a sulphurous atmosphere redolent of home-made brimstone.

Yesterday was a record-breaker in the matter of heat waves. Not content with the modest record of 94 degrees above, which were the figures on Friday's championship belt, the heat yesterday was so intense that it didn't stop working until the mercury had been shoved up to 97 and Friday's registering heat by three degrees. Ninety-seven was the maximum temperature reported by Observer Clarke, but central city thermometers had him beaten to a standstill, and during the greater part of the afternoon the thermometer at 41 street corner registered 100 or over. One hundred and two to one hundred and four degrees were reached during the fiercest blaze.

The official figures show that at noon it was 93 above, at 2 p. m., 95 above, at 3:30 p. m. in the shade. At 4:30 o'clock the 97 mark was reached. Observer Clarke says there is no relief in sight and that from all present indications the hot spell may continue for two or three weeks yet. There are no present indications of rain to break this period of awful heat, but still the weather's an uncertain quality and a sudden storm along the coast might have a most benign influence on local atmospheric conditions.

A slight breeze which blew yesterday afternoon partially lessened the effects of the heat and undoubtedly

FIRST DROWNING CASE.

Eight-Year-Old Patrick Durkin of South Scranton the Victim.

Patrick F. Durkin, 8 years of age, son of John Durkin, of 299 South Irving avenue, was drowned while bathing in the Roaring brook above the oil rolling mill yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. He was wading around in the shallow water at the head of the dam and got above his depth. He was dead before the older bathers could find his body.

ROBINSON WILL BE RIPPED OUT OF OFFICE

One of the Local Effects of the "Chaser"—Recorder Will Re-appoint Him.

One of the immediate effects in this city of the passage of the "chaser" is the "ripper" bill which will be the ripping out of office of City Treasurer E. J. Robinson. Hereafter that office is to be filled by appointment, the recorder having the appointing power. Mr. Robinson's term would expire until the first Monday of April next. Recorder Connell said yesterday that he will appoint the present treasurer to succeed himself.

The recorder and Delinquent Tax Collector George W. Jenkins had a conference yesterday about that office, to which Mr. Jenkins was appointed by Former Recorder Moir. The present recorder is of the opinion that Mr. Jenkins, appointment was not legal and desiring to avoid complications and trouble for the city, he advised Mr. Jenkins that he would not recognize him as the collector of delinquent taxes until the courts have decided that he is entitled to the office.

Mr. Jenkins, when seen by a Tribune man, was prepared to say what course he will pursue, but it is probable that he will begin proceedings at an early day to have the courts pass upon his right to the office of delinquent tax collector. He agrees with the recorder that it would be a bad thing all around if it should be shown some time after he entered upon the duties of his office that he had no authority to collect taxes.

TICKET 1633 THE LUCKY ONE

Won a Ticket to the Exposition and $20 for the Holder.

The drawing for a round-trip ticket to the Pan-American exposition and a $20 gold piece, conducted by St. John's society of Pine Brook, was decided in the society's hall, on Capouse avenue, last night.

Thomas Boles and John Watts, disinterested persons, had charge of the drawing, and the numbers were taken from the wheel by Master Spitzman, a 3-year-old boy. It was decided that the winning number drawn should be the winning one, and this proved to be No. 1633.

The holder of it is unknown. He can have the ticket and money by presenting his coupon to William O'Malley, of North Washington avenue.

NATIONAL OFFICERS HERE.

President Dolphin and Vice President Pearson in the City. President M. M. Dolphin and First Vice President J. M. Pearson of the National Order of Railroad Telegraphers, arrived in the city late last night and will remain here for some days. They came from New York, and it is understood that business connected with the telegraphers of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company accounts for their presence here. President Dolphin had an interview with President Truesdale in New York Saturday, but the results of their conference are unknown at present.
